WE QUOTE

Tyranny of 'They'

(The Christian Science Monitor, 1 May 10, 1931

We wish to quote on a pertinent subject a United State senalor, a letter from a reader, and -outselves.

Saya Senator Indiana I. Neuberger, writing in the megewine Rallway Progress:

I happen to be a nondrinker, I just don't like it. I'm not a probibitions but I am a testotaler. If I mention tills at a party when tendered a highball I'm invariably amazed by the number of others around me who seem to take courage and add, "I'd like idmeto juice, too. I'm likewise a nondrinker." But if I had not mentioned the matter first I am sure they would have kept allent and toyed bravely with Bourbon and Isoda.

In a letter reprinted on this page a few days ago one of our readers parently have discovered this truth in Chicago writes:

Six of us..., were sitting near the outdoor dance floor of one of the hotels. When the native bar attendant approached our table all but one ordered bear of martinis, But when they learned, through my order, that the bar could, and with some rejuctance would, serve limendo, all but one changed his order.

And as long as five years ago ve observed editorially:

"They all do." ... Perhaps the greatest single obstacle in the way of getting the cylic of liquor under control is custom-se vast mertia made up of tacit acceptance that "that's the way it is." .... Customs are both cause and ellect. They are self-perpetualing only so long as the majority bend the knee to the tyranny of

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

A UDHEY GYGER, 606 15th Street, Bodford, Indiana, was once afraid of the hypidermic needle. It was necessary for her to have a very serious operation and after the operation she had to take so many shots she says she felt like a pin cushion. The penicilin shot was the one that caused the most trouble. A large, blonde nurse gave her a that at first and when she entered the room Audrey would tense her muscles, and that caused the needle to bend and it would have to be done all over again. She would then cry for fifteen minutes after the nurse left the

One day a small girl came to see her, so tiny Audrey wondered how she could be a nurse. She came to the ked and said, "I hear that you are terribly biraid of shots." Then she began smoothing her pillow and massaging her neck and back. All the time she kept talking about a patient down the hall who was so beautiful she should be in the movies and she added that Audrey must see this patient before leaving the hospital. After a few minutes she gave the next shot. The next time she came in she gave the same treatment and saked Audrey to keep an eye on the little old lady across the hall who had a heart condition and could not get out of bed. Two hours later she came back and asked how the woman was getting along. Thus keeping her mind on other things Audrey relaxed and finally came to take the shots without too much distress.

Chevrolet's great new L.C.F. models bring you all the advantages of a C.O.E. -plus a long list of important new edvances you won't find anywhere else,

For example, the cab is a full seven inches lower than former C.O.B. models. And it has only two steps instead of the usual three for C.O.E.'s. Just think of the time and effort this will save the driver! Also, the low L.C.F. is handsomer by for than any C.O.E. ever built!

Inside, the L.C.F.'s new Flight-Ride cab has a level floor with plenty of "stretch-out" leg room and offers new driver comfort. The driver has a commanding view of the road-both far ahead and close up front-through the big, broad panoramic windshield.

Quicker, simpler maintenance is another big advantage offered by the new L.C.F. Everything's easier to reach in the roomy engine compartment.

Chevrolet's new Taskmaster V8 engine!

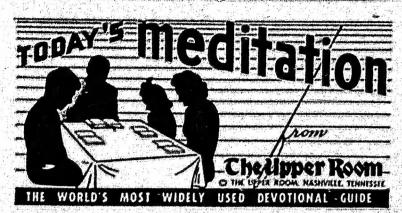

In an L.C.P. you still get the easy maneuverability of a C.O.E. plusnew frames, new suspension, a whole truck-load of modern features!

Shortest Stroke V8 of All! Tho, new Taskmaster V8-the most modern V8 your money can buy-powers the new L.C.F.I. With a 12-volt electrical system for faster starting!

At the crisis of which the lesson tells. Egypt was stirring up the small nations to join in resistance of Arryria. As a result of opposition to Assyria, Judah was soon overrim and a great army threatened Jerusalem. It was of that lime that Dyron wrote in Rebrew came down like the wolf on the fold" with cohorts "gleaming in purple and gold" But Hezeklah refused to be dismayed by the mighty array against his capital, and he reserted to faith in the Lord of hosts. Then was wrought a wordrous miracle in behalf of Hereklah and the besleged cityseme kind of pestilence came upon the Assyrian army, quite declmatlog it. And the haughty Sernahis con capital.

After Hereklah's life had been mercifully lengthened by filteen years, the king displeased God by his vanity and by his folly in displaying his treasures to the emissaries of Babylon, who had come estensibly to congratulate him upon his recovery from his re-onl Illness. So may we be on good at all times, lest we fall into temptation and cancel the good we have done.
